In Touch

A pushover try in the closing minutes settled a close game in Shipston on Stour's favour 27-19.

Ludlow scrum half Rhys Perkins had put the visitors into an early 0-5 lead, but the home team quickly struck back with a converted try before Perkins was once more on the board to give Ludlow the lead 7-12 at half time.

Josh Jukes, returned to the back row after injury, extended the visitors' lead after half time with a try between the sticks, AJ Rocke adding the conversion. But the home side weren't done. A converted try and then a penalty brought them within striking distance and then that pushover try sealed it at 19-27. Prop, Jamie Durban was Ludlow Brewery Man of the Match.

So, without even a losing bonus point, Ludlow tumble back from second to sixth in the league – the league is that tight these days.

Meanwhile at the Linney the Minis and Juniors solemnly observed a minute's silence for Remembrance Day ahead of training.

The Firsts have a week off before their next game at The Linney against Kenilworth on November 22 but the Seconds travel to Five Ways Old Edwardians on Saturday KO 2.15pm. The bar at The Linney clubhouse will be open from 2.30pm on Saturday for the England v New Zealand game KO 3.10pm.
