

In Touch

A bonus point win over Stratford Upon Avon for the firsts 22-6 and a big home win over Camp Hill for the seconds 45-17 moved both our teams to a deserved fourth spot in their respective leagues.

Captain Charlie Doyle lead the way with a try, his fellow back row Raife Hughes followed suite and Toby Morgan playing on the wing scored two cracking tries to secure Ludlow's bonus points at The Linney on Chairman's Day. Jack Lines added the extras with his boot.

Across on pitch two Mark Williams showed he has lost none of his flair with three well taken tries. Centre, Ben Joss and full back Oisin McDermott both scored while Darren Dixon at number 8 made sure the big boys got on the scoreboard too. The extras came from Rhys Evans ever reliable kicking.

Ludlow Brewery man of the match for the Firsts was Rhys Perkins and for the seconds the evergreen Mark Williams. Does anyone know how many seasons Mark has played for the club? It must be some kind of record for a running back and certainly a cracking advertisement for a chocolate diet!

Vice Chairman, Mikey Jones, reports that the Chairman's Day Lunch was a huge success and very well attended. £250 was also raised by attendees which will be donated to Chairman, Lynn Davies', charities of choice – Ludlow Food Bank and The MND Association.

Sadly, the new electronic scoreboard in Club colours wasn't in position or wired up to record Saturday's outcomes but I'm told it will be in time for the next home game. The question will be who is reliable enough to have possession of the remote which controls it?

So next weekend both teams are away. The firsts play Edwardians who are currently second in the league while the seconds travel to Bromsgrove Seconds who currently top their league. Two difficult games at which home support would be welcome please.

Off the pitch the Minis and Juniors are organising the first fireworks night at Ludlow for many years on Friday, October 24 with a professional display by Sky Candy fireworks. Entry for adults is £10 and children £5 when paying on the door with an early bird offer available when booking tickets in advance online via <https://lrfcfw.eventbrite.co.uk>
